LABOUR CONFERENCE.

LONDON, Jan. 28. A conference of the Labour party has opened at Belfast, Ireland. The agenda paper contained proposals making it impos sib'e for representatives in Parliament to move without the permission of the confer-

Mr Keir Hardie protested against such hampering of the Parliamentary represen-

Mr Morley (Helifax) remarked that the which will shortly be ready to produce on a the forefront of the programme, but Mr Keir Hardie and other leaders were Agencies of the Company will receive any promoting the women suffrage movement order for Coals produced from the above instead. They had fallen under petticoat

> Ultimately it was resolved as a compromise by a large majority that the Labour members of the House of Commons should decide on the time and method of executing the instructions of the conference.

An amendment moved by Mr J. D. Shackleton was carried by a majority of two to one referring back to the committee | HONGKONG AND WHAMPOA DOCK | its proposal to establish an election agent

The Paperstainers' Union put forward Under the immediate patronage of proposals which would make the Labour His Excellency Sir ARTHUR LAWLEY, party avowedly socialist. These proposale, which were opposed by Mr Keir Hardie (socialist) and other speakers on tactical grounds, were negatived by delegates His Excellency Sir HENBY McCAL. representing 835,000 members as against delegates representing 98,000 delegates.

A motion by Mr Ben Tillett requiring that every Labour member of the House Under the immediate patronage of of Commons, candidate for the House of His Excellency Sir Henry Blake, Commons, or delegate should be a trade unionist was rejected by 553,000 to 381,00.

Twentieth Century Impressions or The conference considered that such a trade. union test was inopportune. Mr Quelch, on tehalf of the London

Trades Council, moved the adoption of a programme based on resolutions approved by the Trade Unions Congress. He alleged that his proposal was innocant of Mr Shackleton insisted that the resolutions would commit the party to a socialist programmé. It would be better to drop the question of a programme until the party obtained a majority in the House of Commons. The proposal was negatived by 1,021,000 to 76 (00. Mr. Hardie said that it would be a seirous tactical error to impose socialism upon an anprepared people. 🦠 The conference endorsed proposals to bring about old age ponsions, and to legalise eight hours as a day's work. LONDON, Jan. 27.

The conference of the Labour party at Belfast by 605,000 against 268,000 votes refused to place womanhood suffrage in the forefront of the party's programme. In consequence of this vote Mr Keir Hardie threatens to resign the leadership of the party in Parliament. The Labour Conference favours the extension of the suffrage to all men and women, and condemna any proposal to extend it on a property qualification to a section of women as a retregrade step. Mr W. Ramsay Macdonald, M.P., and Mr. W. D. Shackleton, M.P., attribute the heavy vote of the conference rejecting n promisal to give prominence to the move-ment to the methods of some advocates of womanhood suffrage.

Mr Keir Hardie declares that he will seriously consider the question of resigning the leadership of the Independent Labour party if it is intended to limit the action of the Labour party in Palliament. Mr Quelch (London Trades Council), in referring to the continuance of unemployment, declared hat Mr John Burns, President of the Board of Trade was a most reactionary Minister.: The conference has now ended.

The island has nearly disappeared. Shooks of earthquake continue daily is Pulo Babi is the most northerly of the islands off the west coast of Sumatra, and is situated about 70 miles from the main land. It is not simply of volcanic origin, but exhibits the older rocks of the main island, granites and sandstones, and poss esses, roughly speaking its fauna; although the larger animals, such as the tiger, olephant, and rhinoceros, are as might be expected, wanting. Of Pulo Babi, which is also known as Si Malu, or Hog Island, not much is known. The inhabitants are partly Achences and partly descendants of Menan kabe settlers, and profess the Mohammedan religion, but they are almost savages, and the Dutch have not attempted to establish a setrlement on the island which was, previous to the catastropheroported this morning, about 60 miles in length by 20 in breadth.]

MARK TWAIN, DUELLIST.

Amusing Sequel to an Editoria Disagreement.

Each issue of the North American Re view now contains a chapter of Mari Twain's autobiography. The latest number of the magazine described Mark Twain experiences es a duellist : The inciden occurred, it seems, during the time Twais was on a Virginia City paper, in the new territory of Nevada, in 1864, and wa acting quite temporarily as editor. His chief duty was to write a leading article each day; but he found grave difficulties in discovering suitable topics, and, in an evil moment, he ran a tilt at Mr Laird, a proprictor of the opposition journal, the "Virginia Union," the editor of which had also gone off for a vacation, with the result that Laird was also trying his 'prentice hend at editing. Says Twain :-

"I woke up Mr Laird with some courtesies of the kind that were fashionable among newspaper editors in that region, and he came back at me the next day in most vitriolic way. He was hurt by some thing I had said about him-some little thing-I don't remember what it was now-probably called him a horse-thick or one of those little phrases custo marily used to describe another aditor They were no doubt just, and accurate but Laird was a very consitive creature and he didn't like it. So we expected challenge from Mr Laird, because according to the rules-according to the eliquette duelling as reconstructed and reorganise and improved by the duellists of that region -whenever you said a thing about another person that he didn't like, it wasn't suffices for him to talk back in the same offensive spirit; etiquetto required him to send challenge. "The challenge came in the end, and went out. We set the barn door up an stood a fonce rail up against the middle it, to represent Mr Laird. But the re was no proper representative of him, i he was longer than a rall and thinne Nothing would ever fetch him but a li-shot, and then as like as not he would spi the bullet-the worst material for dueiling purposes, that could be imagined. THE HOME FOR, ANARCHISTS years. BITTER attacks are frequently made upon Great Britain because of the laxity with which she treats anarchists and other disturbers of the international peace. The German papers, apropos of the discovery of another conspiracy to assassinate King A phones of Spain, have recently been drawing marked attention to the danger to other countries which Great Britain is abetting by allowing murderous revolutionaries to organise their plans in London. There is decidedly justice in these complaints. Anar chists deserve the sympathy of no civilized state, and probably Great seems to have met a felt want, for ing through the lower windows, and were ment of the issue. Great Britain is not doing her duty by her neighbours as long she permits auarchists to use her territory as a base of operations. It is to be hoped that this view will be adopted by the British Government and that the present un fortunate and rather discreditable state of things will be summarily ended.

> With the New Year another Chinese newspaper has come to birth here in Hongkong. It is called the "Heung Shan Times," and is supposed to chroni cle the events of the rich district behind Macao, where much of the silk is grown Of course it also takes a glimpse of the whole of China, though much of its make the enemy's commerce the mai merit-it is cheap. The defendant was yesterday limping about in front of the race stands with the aid of a bamboo stick. He approached a party Baker, and one of the party remarked that he believed defendant to be a fraud. that defendant certainly did not look like a cripple. He had hardly spoken when at Mr. Geo. P. BY WHARF AND WAVE.

The N.Y.K. steamship "Awa Maru," which stranded at Redesr on Dec. 27, wa floated on the afternoon of Jan. 13 The vessel had been lightened of her cargo by barger, and after part of the rock had been blasted away, four steam tugs towed her off at high tide. Thousands of speciatore were present. She had been seventeen days on the rocks. The latest advice received from the Salvage Association's surveyor states that the "Awa Moru" has been safely dry-dock d at Newc stle-on-Tyne, and that a curvey of the damage will be at once commenced.

The special committee of wardens appointed by the Marine Board to report on the evidence given at the inquiry held at Port Darwin into the stranding of the steamer "Australian" has concluded its operations. The committee holds that the stranding was caused by the extraordinarily strong southerly set of the tide on the night of the disaster, and expressed regret that the ship's lead was not used, so that the approach to shoul- water might have been detected in time. Various precautionary recommendations are made, with a view to rendering navigation in the waters in quea

They are especially built for the tropics with very large well ventilated cabins, amidship, lighted throughout by electricity, fans provided in each cabin. The borths are not arranged one above the other as it has been the fashion hitherto, but the staterooms closely resemble ordinary sleeping rooms on shore, the berths standing like beds at either side of the cabins. As a novelty, a number of cabins are provided for single passengers. These steamers call at Naples & Plymouth. In addition to the above steamers, the s.s. Mr Bernard

Working Man's Life Search to Prove His Right.

. Nearly a lifetime has been spent by a Tonbridge working man named Peter Fuller in probing into history extending over almost three centuries in order to establish his claim to estates valued at £250,000. These estates, to which he claims to be the rightful heir, are situated at Brightling, Sussex, and in Jamaios, the former at the present time being occuped by Bir George Augustus Elliott Tapps Jervis Morrick, who succeeded to the property in 1896, Mr Fuller is a man of no ordinary intelligence, as one of the Standard's representatives discovered when he waited upon him in his neatly furnished little cottage. He was then, with a large caken chest filled with deeds and other documents by his side, busily engaged linking together the chain of evidence which he hopes is to bring him a vast fortune. He told an interesting story. "I have there," he said, pointing to his tressures, evidence which would prove conclusively my rights to the possession of these estates. I have searched all the parishes where the family has resided, and I can trace back 279 yours. In fac, I have got birth certificates all complete from the commencement of that time, and I have at last discovered the one link to the chain of evidence which will prov my claim. In the year 1834 my great grandfather became sontitled as heir-at-law to the Fuller estates. but was no aware as the time of his

"I have spent weeks and weeks," Mr Fuller declared, "searching through the registers in Sussex. Tombstones have even been moved for me. If they were to take up the churchyard at Waldron, where I was born, they would find it full of Follors. The family first started in the fron trade as nail makers, and became rich through industry and lucky marrying. have searched all the Somerset House records, but have found elder ones in Sussex than they have there, and I now hold the trump card, and challenge the occupiers of these estates to prove their right to be there." Questioned as to what he would do if he came into this fortune, Mr Fuller said it

Had to Be Washed and Dressed and Even Fed Like a Baby — Suffered Untold Agony—Afraid to Be Left Alone—Had Despaired of Getting Better-In Awful State.

CURED IN ONE MONTH BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I think it nothing but right that I should let you know what Cuticura has done for me. I had eczema for three years and I was under doctor's treatment the whole of the time, also the Infirmary, and I could not get cured. It would get better for a day or two, but would break out again worse than ever. At times it was so bad I had to be washed and dressed and even fed like a baby. It was only my hands and arms that were affected, but I suffered untold agony, and I got so low I was airaid to be left alone, and I had quite despaired of getting better, but at last I tried Cuticura. used three boxes of Cuticura Ointment, and three bottles of Cuticura Pills, and in a month I was cured. That was twelve months ago and I have seen no signs of it returning. I always keep a bottle of Cuticura Pills in the house. They do me more good than anything else, and I never use any other than Cuticura Soap. I think that no matter how bad any one was, if they gave the Cuticura Remedies a fair trial, they would cure them, for I was in an awful state, Mrs. Conley, 9 Gawen St., off Jock Lane, Holbeck, Leeds, England, Jan. 23, 1906."
